Class News:

This week's unique story was about the iheart radio musical festival. It will be online this Friday and Saturday night. It will be on TV September 27th. The trainees all said they would want to watch it. We also talked about our budgets and where we get money for different things such as a savings account, a checking account and our wallet. We learned that we use savings accounts for big purchases, checking for monthly bills, and wallet for everyday expenses. We enjoyed the weather this week in the shade reading our book club book Beauty and the Beast.

Supervisor Note:

We had a great week this week!! We started cooking our first batch of casseroles. I hope you all enjoy your baked mac and cheese this weekend. On Monday we will start cooking Chicken Noodle Casserole. We started with cheese and noodles but don't worry more vegetables will be in this week's casserole. Please check your trainee's planners daily as they write a little note to you every day about what they did that day.
